

Babe In The Woods

So much for peace and quiet Brendan Millar wants to spend a quiet summer in the woods of northern Minnesota. He has a difficult decision to make whether or not to become a priest and he needs time alone. But that isn't going to happen. Not when Dani Taylor, a beautiful woman with questions of her own, arrives. It's impossible to ignore Dani and soon Brendan isn't sure he wants to. Then, as if Dani isn't enough of a complication, his teenage niece shows up. She's a runaway pregnant runaway. And the baby's due any day. Things aren't turning out the way Brendan planned. But he still has to come up with an answer. Does he choose the path he's spent most of his life following or take a chance on Dani? And what about the baby?
