

I Love My Love - A Play (Acting Edition)

Trendy magazine Femina offers two contrasting wives - country-bumpkin Anne and sophisticate Cat - $1000 to swap places for a week to compare lifestyles. Anne goes to London to run the chic apartment of Cats advertising executive husband, while Cat journeys to deepest Devon to cook, clean and care for gentle, sexually-repressed, shopkeeper Derek. Violent snowstorms mean that Cat and Derek are cut off, and when the snow ploughs eventually arrive the life-swap has become a wife-swap. A witty, finely observed study of middle-class contrasts.

Set in a desolate motel room on the edge of the Mojave desert, the play has something of the timeless Fool for Love
