

No Enemy: A Tale of Reconstruction (Millennium Ford)

No Enemy, written between The Good Soldier (1915) and Parades End (1919) was not published until 1929 in New York. It is vintage Ford, neglected in part because of its publishing history, in part because it falls between the stools of fiction and autobiography.

Orville Vernon Burton talked about his book [The Age of Lincoln], published by Hill and Wang.
