

Satans Gun (Linford Western Library)

Nineteen year old Sam Bryson faces a conflict that will test his courage, character and faith. Sam had been raised by his grandparents since he was three years old. He had been given his first pistol on his thirteenth birthday and ordered by his grandpa to practise every day, except Sunday. Albert Brysons dilemma is that his beloved wife had brought Sam up to reject violence leaving him vulnerable in a cruel and violent land. He orders Sam and his cousin, Jack, to hunt down Sharkey Kelsall who is wanted for murdering a Bryson ranch hand and whoever gets Kelsall will inherit the ranch. Sam Bryson has no reason to fear any man nor any desire to kill, but he will soon discover that his life is threatened by others and that he must protect himself.
