

Only in the Movies: Concluded

With the main story and the back story told simultaneously throughout three books, Only in the Movies is an epic trilogy spanning from 1895 to 2095 with the lives of a family explored through a reaction to wealth and a passion for filmmaking. The story celebrates the naive absurdity of what's presented to the audience on the screen and explores the corruption within the world of the film industry itself. 2044 - 2095 For Jessica's son, Simon, Hollywood success is elusive and he continues his filmmaking career in Paris, France. Meanwhile his girlfriend Nicole achieves Hollywood success after years of hard work and faces Hollywood corruption with results she never thought possible or saw coming. 1964 - 1984 In spite of John Edwards' talent and passion for music, nothing can stop the days of the Edwards family fortune coming to a devastating close. Only in the Movies is a trilogy set in Australia, the United States of America, Poland, England, Vietnam, Japan, Egypt, Russia, France, China, Greece, Germany, Switzerland, Nepal, Antarctica, the Pacific Ocean, the Atlantic Ocean, the far reaches of space and one scene on top of Mount Everest just for the hell of it. In addition to locations all over the world and throughout the galaxy, Only in the Movies is a trilogy with the genres of satire, action, adventure, western, musical, prison, mystery, disaster, inspirational, thriller, romance, drama, the supernatural, comedy, court room drama, dying person drama, war, film noir, horror, science fiction and shameless historical inaccuracies.
